SAMPLE ESSAY:

When I lost my old phone last month, I decided to save my pocket money and purchased my favourite smart phone. The iPhone 11 Pro was the one that caught my attention for a number of reasons. It comes in array of colours but I have chosen white as it appears to be more attractive than any other colours.

First, I consider this smart phone to be excellent value for money due to its high storage capacity. Besides, I am impressed with the advanced technology it provides. I love the camera capabilities to capture good pictures as well as videos.

Apart from that, the size of 6.1 inch display is just nice to carry in my pocket. The best thing about the phone is that it is easy to operate even for someone who is fairly new with a smartphone.

Personally, this smartphone suits my needs as I can use it to not just make calls but to also send text messages via Whatsapp and Telegram applications. Moreover I also use it to check my emails. Furthermore, I use it to browse for information via online. It also provides me with entertainment where I use it to download music and games.

In conclusion, the iPhone 11 Pro is worth buying as it is the most powerful Apple phone in the market. I would certainly recommend this phone to my family and friends. It is both user friendly and worth it.
